Presented by the Sacramento County Board of Supervisors and Human Services Coordinating Council

Purpose of the Heroes of Human Service
The Heroes of Human Service Awards recognition was created to honor residents of Sacramento County who have touched the lives of others through their advocacy, dedication, service and support.

We are looking for individuals who have demonstrated outstanding involvement and commitment to human services throughout Sacramento County. Human services are broadly defined as community services that support and protect individuals and families. Examples include but are not limited to: social work, counseling, dependent care, job training, shelter services, health programs, mentoring, financial assistance, after school programs, and nutrition services.

Two constituents from each of the five County Supervisorial districts will be selected. Additional honorable mentions may also be selected.

Eligibility
Nominees must be residents of Sacramento County. Nominees must have demonstrated a commitment to human services through personal or professional efforts to provide fellow residents with the resources, services, supports, or opportunities needed to enhance quality of life and social functioning.

Submission Requirements
The attached “2010 Heroes of Human Service Awards” nomination form must be filled out in its entirety. You may nominate as many individuals as you like, but please only submit one nomination per form. Completed nomination forms can be submitted to the contact information stated below.

Due Dates
Nominations are due by Friday, October 1, 2010.

Selection and Notification
A panel representing the Sacramento County Board of Supervisors and the Human Services Coordinating Council will make the selection of honorees. Please note: no more than one representative from a particular group or organization will be selected. All honorees will receive notification by a telephone call or letter.

Ceremony information
All honorees will be publicly presented with a resolution from the Sacramento County Board of Supervisors at the Human Services Recognition Ceremony to be held at 10:00 A.M. on Tuesday, November 30, 2010, at the Sacramento County Board of Supervisors Chambers, 700 H Street.
